MEDIA COVERAGE

From the tip of the Panhandle and down through Miami, the University of Florida athletic program attracts statewide interest from newspapers, magazines, television, websites and radio stations. UF holds its fair share of the national spotlight too, as media outlets such as ESPN, USA Today and Sports Illustrated track the progress of not only the nationally ranked football team, but also the careers of the many Gator world-class athletes. Locally, more than dozen media outlets regularly cover the Gators. In addition to daily coverage from the local media, many of the state's larger papers such as the Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post and the St. Petersburg Times employ beat writers who live in Gainesville year-round for the sole purpose of covering Gator teams. The UF Communications Department also helps student-athletes' hometown media follow the careers of Gators from their area.

ESPN AND THE SEC: BRING CONFERENCE ACTION TO THE NATION

The unprecedented contract between the Southeastern Conference and ESPN is now in its second season. As part of the contact, ESPN2 will air the SEC Gymnastics Championships. The contract also calls for ESPNU to air 25 additional SEC regular-season events. This includes two regular-season meets featuring Florida – versus Alabama on Feb. 4 and at Georgia on Feb. 12. This is the 12th consecutive season Florida gymnastics has made at least one appearance on an ESPN channel. This contract is set to run for 15 seasons, giving the conference unprecedented national exposure on the ESPN channels.

The league's regional television package will air three additional dual meets featuring the Gators – Jan. 15 versus Kentucky, Jan. 21 at LSU (both on SUN Sports Network) and Feb. 25 at Arkansas (Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast).

Sun Sports Network, which reached 99 percent of Florida's cable homes, will air more than 100 UF events during the 2010-11 academic year. Included are two Gator meets – the Jan. 7 season opener versus Nebraska and the regular-season home finale versus SEC rival Auburn on Feb. 18.

CBS will cover the 2011 NCAA Championships, set for April 14-16 in the Wolstein Center in Cleveland, Ohio, on a tape-delayed basis. The airdate is set for Saturday, May 14 from 2-4 p.m. on CBS HD.

The impact Rhonda Faehn's made on the University of Florida gymnastics program is undeniable. In her eight years as the Gators' head coach, the program has:

- Claimed six top-five NCAA Championship finishes, including in each of the last five seasons.
- Won the 2007 and 2010 Southeastern Conference team titles
- Claimed last six NCAA Region team titles
- Established the top-10 team scores in school history and each team event record

When she accepted the Florida head coaching position in the late spring of 2002, Faehn (pronounced FAIN) saw a program with the potential to firmly establish itself among the nation's elite. She's made that vision a reality, as the Gators perform an exciting and high-level of gymnastics that consistently competes with the nation's best and brings new fans to the O'Connell Center.

Six top-five NCAA finishes have been turned in by Faehn-led Gator teams, which include equaling the program's second-highest NCAA finish by placing third in the 2007 NCAA Super Six competition. Florida made its first NCAA Super Six appearance in six seasons at the 2004 national championships, where the Gators took fifth overall. UF returned to the Super Six again in 2006, taking fourth. In 2007, Florida won the SEC team title - the sixth in the program's history, but its first since 1989. The Gators repeated as SEC champions again in 2010. Florida advanced to the 2008, 2009 and 2010 NCAA Super Six, taking fourth in 2008 and 2009 and fifth in 2010. The Gators claimed their last six NCAA Region team titles, with their 2005 NCAA Southeast Region title being UF's first since 1997. Four regional titles came on the road - 2006 South Central, 2007 Northeast and 2009 & 2010 North Central Regional crowns. The 2005 and 2008 NCAA Southeast Region titles were claimed in the O'Connell Center.

Under Faehn, 25 UF gymnasts have claimed a total of 75 All-America honors and Gator athletes earned 22 All-SEC accolades. In the competitive arena, the Gators registered wins over some of the nation's top teams during the last eight years, including victories over Alabama, Georgia, UCLA and Utah. Faehn also found success on the recruiting trail, as her classes are regarded among the nation's best, including the 2010 class that drew the No. 1 ranking. After leading the 2007 Gator team to the No. 1 position in 11 of the 12 regular-season ranking periods, Faehn was named the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) Coach of the Year. She is a four-time recipient of the NACGC Southeast Region Gymnastics Coach of the Year. She shared the 2003 honor and was again named the winner in 2005, 2007 and 2010. Faehn picked up back-to-back SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2006 and 2007. Faehn was the 2010 selection for SEC Coach of the Year.

Faehn took over in May of 2002 as the sixth head coach for the Gator program. She brought experience at the sports' highest level to the Florida program. A member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic Team and an All-American while at UCLA, Faehn coached among the club and collegiate levels for nine years prior to joining UF.

Faehn joined the Florida program after spending four seasons (1999-02) at the University of Nebraska. She served as an assistant coach for the Huskers for three seasons before being elevated to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2001. Four of the Huskers' five NCAA Super Six appearances were achieved with Faehn on the NU staff and during that time, the team twice posted Super Six finishes of fifth (2001 and '02) and took fourth at the 2000 event. The Cornhuskers also produced two-time NCAA champion Heather Brink during this period, when Brink claimed the NCAA all-around and vault crowns in 2000. Faehn was named the NACGC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2001. She also collected the South Central Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2002 and shared the 2000 Region 3 Assistant Coach of the Year award. During her stay at NU, 11 athletes earned a total of 21 All-America awards.

She also was an assistant coach at the University of Maryland for the 1997 and '98 seasons. She was named the Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 1998 after playing a crucial role in the Terps qualifying for their first Southeast Regional meet in seven seasons. Maryland improved from 11-18 in her first season to 22-18 and a seventh-place Southeast Regional finish in 1998.

Prior to joining Maryland, Faehn was head coach at the Lanco Gymnastics Training Center in Lancaster, Pa., from 1994-96. At Lanco Gymnastics Training Center, Faehn organized a team program for levels four through 10. She was in charge of choreography for the beam and floor exercise and coached the level nine team to a state championship. Faehn has also served as a master staff member and clinician at the Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa.

During her collegiate career at UCLA (1990-92), Faehn earned All-America second-team honors in both the all-around and balance beam at the 1992 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the 1992 All-Pacific-10 team and shared that season's conference uneven bars title. Faehn began her coaching career as a Bruins' student assistant from 1992-94. She graduated from UCLA in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Faehn's club gymnastics resume includes competitions at the sport's highest level. Faehn, the first alternate to the 1988 U.S. Olympic team, was a four-year member of the U.S. National Team (1985-88). She is the 1987 and '88 U.S. vault champion, scoring a perfect 10.0 at both the 1988 U.S. Olympic Trials and the 1988 U.S. National Championships. In 1987, she was the highest U.S. finisher at the World Championships, placing 19th in the all-around. Faehn, who trained under world-famous coach Bela Karolyi, was a member of the U.S.'s gold-medal team at the 1987 Pan American Games, where she took eighth in the all-around and fourth in the vault.

In the summer of 2006, Faehn and Jeremy Bayon were married. They have two sons. Noah Émile Bayon was born in January of 2008 and Isaiah Freedom Bayon arrived in November of 2010. The family resides in Gainesville.

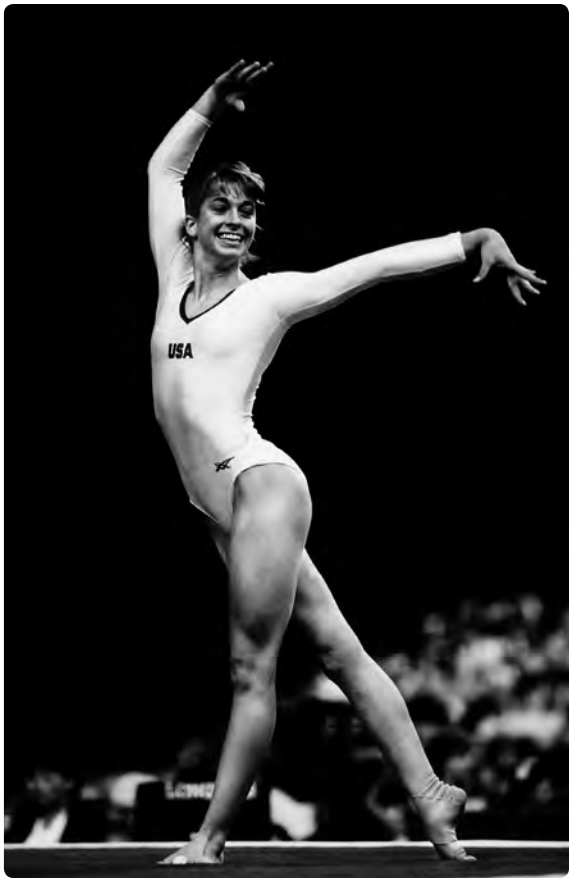
"Rhonda was one of my most dedicated and disciplined gymnasts. I enjoyed coaching her as she developed into a world-class gymnast. She has been the national champion on the vault and a member of the U.S. National Team. Rhonda has a high moral standard and is driven by her goals. Those traits she showed as a gymnast are still present today. Rhonda has already proven her expertise and high technical coaching level in her previous positions. I have absolutely no doubt that she will be one of the sport's most successful coaches. She continues to be one of my favorites - I wish her the best of luck."

–Bela Karolyi

"Rhonda Faehn possesses all of the qualities necessary to be a successful head coach, including the one I feel the most important, a passionate understanding of the importance of coaching the "person" before the "athlete"."

- UCLA Head Gymnastics Coach Valorie Kondos Field



ASSISTANT COACHES

ADRIAN BURDE
ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Burde (pronounced bur-DAY) enters his fifth season with the Florida gymnastics program in the fall of 2010. He coaches vault and tumbling, as well as aids in recruiting and team conditioning.

Burde coached the Gator uneven bar performers when he joined the program and his impact was evident early, as the 2007 Gators opened the season with the team's then third-highest uneven bars team total ever of 49.575 at the Super Six Challenge. The UF bar record was reset to 49.70 versus Kentucky on Feb. 16. The Gators held the No. 1 position in the national bar rankings for the final nine weeks of the regular season. Florida was again among the national uneven bars leaders in Burde's second season. Florida's total of 49.625 set in the Gators' Link to Pink meet was the nation's highest uneven bars total of the 2008 season and ranks third all-time for the Gators. In 2009, Florida stood among the top three for nine weeks in the national bar rankings. Two Gators advanced to the 2009 NCAA bar final, with then sophomore Alicia Goodwin sharing third overall – matching the second-highest UF bar finish in the program's history. All-America honors were earned by three Gator bar performers in 2010, with two advancing to the event final.

His peers recognized Burde as the 2007 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

Burde joined UF in June of 2006 after working as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska since 2001. At Nebraska, he served as the vault and floor coach and conditioning coordinator. While there, he was named the 2003 National Assistant Coach of the Year by the NACGC and the 2003 South Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

At Nebraska, Burde helped lead the Cornhuskers to four NCAA Super Six team finals (2002, '03, '05, '06). He saw NU athletes earn 19 All-America honors in the floor and vault events. It was at Nebraska that Burde coached Canadian Richelle Simpson, the 2003 NCAA all-around and floor exercise champion. He served as her coach at the 2003 World Championships in Anaheim, Calif., and the 2003 Pan American Games. Burde and UF Head Coach Rhonda Faehn both were members of the Nebraska coaching staff for the 2002 season.

Prior to working at Nebraska, Burde coached the girl's Level 10 and International Elite programs for the Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Okla. There, he coached U.S. National Team members Larissa Stewart and Lori Wynn.

Burde began his coaching career in his native Romania in 1994, where he was a Junior National team coach until 1999. He coached the Romanian Junior National Team with current UF Assistant Coach Robert Ladanyi. The two have known each other since their competitive gymnastic days.

Burde's international coaching experience is a great benefit to the Gators. He coached Romanian Alexandra Eremia from 1997-99, who later was a member of the 2004 Olympic gold medal team and was awarded the bronze medal on the balance beam. Burde also coached Florica Leonida during the same time, who along with Eremia, earned a team silver medal at the 2003 World Championships.

Burde was a member of the Romanian Junior National Team from 1988 to 1992. He joined the French club team Aix les Bains in 1992 and captured the all-around title at the 1994 French national meet. While competing, Burde also helped coach younger gymnasts at the club.

Burde is a 1996 graduate of the Romanian National School of Coaching, where he received a degree in International High Level Gymnastics.

He married the former Darcie Lee in the summer of 2007.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROBERT LADANYI
ASSISTANT COACH

Robert Ladanyi (pronounced La-DA-knee) is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Florida. He coaches the Gator uneven bar performers and also shares the team's conditioning coach duties.

Ladanyi coached vault and the team on their tumbling skills when he first joined the Gator coaching staff. The upgrade was immediately seen in his first season in 2006 as the Gators gained a reputation among the nation's collegiate programs for their difficulty throughout the floor lineup. Florida's 12 representatives since 2006 in NCAA floor exercise final competition is tops among the nation's gymnastics programs.

In 2008, Florida sent four to the NCAA floor final (Amanda Castillo, Corey Hartung, Ashley Reed and Nicola Willis) with Willis leading the Gators by cumulating her UF career with a third-place finish. Half of Florida's floor lineup earned All-America honors in 2006 and 2007, with Savannah Evans (2006 and 2007), Hartung (2006 and 2007) and Reed (2007) advancing to the NCAA Event Final. Hartung finished her UF career in 2009 by taking third in the NCAA floor final. A pair of Gator freshmen – Marissa King and Ashanée Dickerson advanced to the 2010 NCAA floor final. The Gators ranked first or second in the national floor exercise rankings 28 weeks since 2007.

The Gators also were successful in vault the last five seasons. Seven of the program's all-time top-10 vault team totals have been achieved since 2007, including three additions in the 2010 season. A Gator took at least a share of nine vault event titles during the course of the 2006 campaign. Two Gators advanced to the 2007 NCAA vault event final - Castillo and Evans. A Gator claimed at least a share of all but two 2008 regular-season vault titles and Reed won the Southeastern Conference and NCAA Southeast Region vault titles. In 2009, Florida gymnasts claimed five regular-season vault titles and Maranda Smith advanced to the NCAA vault final. King and Dickerson also represented UF in the 2010 NCAA vault final.

Ladanyi came to UF from the Mihaiuc Gymnastics Academy (MGA) in Webster, Texas, where he had coached since 2002. Three gymnasts advanced to the National Junior Olympic Championships during his time at MGA. He also was an assistant coach at the Academy of Gymnastics and Dance in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2001-02.

Before coaching in the United States, Ladanyi was head coach of CSM in Baia Mare, Romania (1992-97). Part of his responsibilities included coaching the Romania Junior National team from 1994-97. Three gymnasts he coached were selected for the 1999 Romanian Senior National team, while Monica Sabou was the alternate for the 2001 Romanian World Team. Ladanyi then left his native Romania to become the head coach at S.G. Amsicora in Cagliari, Italy from 1997-01.

Ladanyi graduated from the Romanian National School of Coaching in 1994 with a degree in International High Level Gymnastics. He trained with the Romanian National Team where he was as an all-around competitor who excelled in parallel bars and rings before an injury forced him to retire from competition at age 19.

Ladanyi has two daughters, Gabriella, who was born in December of 2004 and Laila, who arrived in May of 2009.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mackenzie Caquatto

5-0 ● Freshman ● AA

Naperville, Ill. (Legacy Elite)

Collegiate Bests:

Caquatto, or "Macko," started gymnastics when she was 2. But she really fell in love with gymnastics during the 1996 Olympics — when it went from a pastime to a goal-setting drive. Her proudest moment so far is going to the 2010 World Championships in the Netherlands. Her younger sister is also an aspiring gymnast who keeps her motivated and grounded. She loves her mom's spaghetti, as part of her father's 100-percent Sicilian heritage. One of her competitions took her to Venice, which she loved. Her competitions have taken her all over the world, but she longs to visit Australia.

The Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year remembers watching Gator gymnastics meets since she was 8 years old. Performing in front of loud, large crowds—Dickerson idolized the gymnasts she saw. Now living the dream, she says performing on the mat is ten times better than cheering in the stands. Keeps in touch with the young gymnasts from her club, who may also dream of one day competing in the O'Connell Center. She prefers taking pictures versus signing autographs because it takes her longer to sign her name. Born and raised a short drive away in Jacksonville, she says the best thing about the annual Florida-Georgia football game is tailgating.

People always ask Ellis, being from Naperville, Ill., if she's been to Chicago. She has, and she loves the city's atmosphere and shopping. Coming from a family of nine, life can be hectic at times and family dinners involving everyone are a rarity. Her favorite meal is lasagna. She credits her club coach and qualifying for Junior Olympic Nationals as breaking through her mental barrier—when she gained more confidence in herself and her abilities. She does her best work at night when most distractions are gone, or asleep. Her "hands-down" favorite TV show is Grey's Anatomy, a love originally fostered out of dreams of becoming a doctor.

Ferguson, originally from Halifax in Nova Scotia, Canada, used to spend her days on Citadel Hill where her and her siblings would play around in the fortress at the top of the hill. She doesn't say "eh," but her dad still does. A big hockey fan, she roots for the Toronto Maple Leafs and Tampa Bay Lightning. Growing up and calling soda "pop," it took Ferguson a little while to get into the habit of calling soda, "soda." Goodwin fell in love with Olympic gymnast Shannon Miller during the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta and still regards Miller as her favorite gymnast. Every now and then she'll catch herself watching Miller's balance beam routine on YouTube. She took an art class over the summer and painted the Dallas skyline, reflecting her Texas pride. The painting is framed and hangs in her room. She is a fan of the Texas Rangers and wouldn't mind parlaying her sports management degree into a career with the Rangers or Dallas Cowboys. Been a gymnast since age 8, but still feels a flutter of nerves before she competes in an event. She alleviates them by leaning over, taking a deep breath, relaxing and mentally walking herself through her routine.

Johnson's parents started her on gymnastics as a change of pace from her older siblings, all soccer players. It was love at first tumbling pass. Johnson took a break from the mat and uneven bars to swim, but ultimately gymnastics won out. Johnson was home-schooled from fourth through eighth grade and said it was nice being on her own schedule. What happened on June 13, 2008? Well, in Tyler, Texas, the mayor declared that date "Alaina Johnson Day" after she earned a spot in the U.S. Olympic Trials. While the Stephen O'Connell Center is now home to King, the former Olympian cited the O2 Arena in London and the Beijing National Stadium—home of the 2008 Summer Olympics—as her other favorite gym venues. It gets on her nerves when people click their pens, tap their fingers, or chew with their mouth open. She loves ice cream, any sort. While she has spanned the globe following her gymnastics aspirations, she still wants to visit New York City and Las Vegas. A Britain native, she learned to drive on the right side, but says it's easy to adapt to the left, which she said makes more sense.

An avid music fan, whose tastes range from rap to country, she always has her music player nearby. She loves animals and has one cat at home. She speaks Bosnian with her parents. Like a lot of freshmen at a new college, Lemezan needed the help of a map to get around the UF campus the first few days. She pulled out the map again on her first day of sophomore year. She was obsessed with the Spice Girls when she was younger and formed a Spice Girls club with her friends. She was Sporty Spice.

Britt, B. Noble - call her anything you want, except lazy. GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

GENERAL DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor	0.5
Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)	0.1
Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor	0.3
Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise)	0.1
Intermediate swing (bars)	0.3
Concentration pauses longer than two seconds	0.1
Coach blocking judges' view	0.2
Competing out of order (taken from the team score)	0.1
"Up to the competition level" deduction	0.1

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

2011 Gator Vaults

Vault/Gymnasts	Value
Yurchenko layout with full twist: Ashanée Dickerson, Mackenzie Caquatto, Nicole Ellis, Alaina Johnson, Dali Lemezan, Brittney Noble, Lauren Rose, Maranda Smith, Randy Stageberg	10.0
Yurchenko layout with one and a halftwist: Ashanée Dickerson	10.0
Tsukahara layout with full twist: Marissa King	10.0
Tsukahara layout with 1 ½ twist: Marissa King	10.0

Gymnastics skills are divided into different categories (A,B,C,D,E), with E containing the exceptionally difficult skills. An asterisk denotes E-level skills (*).

UNEVEN BARS

At least two elements must be on the low bar. Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, several bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds.

Gators to Watch in 2011:

Mackenzie Caquatto: Shaposhnikova, bail handstand, Tkatchev, full out dismount

Ashanée Dickerson: Hindorff*, toe on toe off, bail to handstand, double layout dismount*

Jade Wiggins: giant blind Jaeger, bailt to handstand, double layout dismount*

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, strength elements such as turns, leaps, body waves and running steps. Special requirements of this event are an acrobatic series, a gymnastics series, a full turn and a leap.

The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no undertime deduction. Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).

2) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements, one element C or higher.

3) A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the dance series).

4) Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.

5) Minimum of C dismount or B dismount proceeded by and directly connected to any C element (acro or dance).

Jade Wiggins: flip flop one arm into Gainer layout, front aerial to back tuck Gainer, full twist dismount

FLOOR EXERCISE

The composition of the exercise must show harmony between gymnastics and acrobatic elements, create dynamic changes in rhythm and levels and show versatile use of the entire floor area. The exercise must contain two different acrobatic series and one series must contain at least two sal¬tos. The musical accompaniment is to be instrumental only. The exercise must last between 1:10 and 1:30 minutes. The "competition level" for floor exercise are defined by the basic standards (failure to meet competition level is a .10 deduction):

1) One acro series with two (2) saltos (same or different).

2) Three different saltos within the exercise.

3) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements (leaps - one must be off of one foot that includes a 180 degree split; jumps)

2010 GATOR GYMNASTICS SEASON REVIEW

Jan. 8@ Oklahoma
(L - 196.25-195.275)

Ranked No. 4 in the preseason, Florida traveled to Norman, Okla., for the team's first meet of the year against No. 9 Oklahoma. Mistakes early on in the meet would cost the Gators the win. Amanda Castillo led UF on the uneven bars with a score of 9.80, but misses from two of her teammates left Florida with a season-low 48.175 team total for the event. The five scores that were used toward Florida's vault team total all finished in the top three. Senior Maranda Smith and freshman Ashanée Dickerson tied for first with scores of 9.875. Dickerson also took a share of second for the beam (9.875) and floor (9.85). She also claimed the all-around title. Still, the Gators could not overcome the early deficit and Oklahoma took the win, 196.25-195.275.

Jan. 15 Arkansas
(W - 196.575-195.925)

Florida's first home meet of the season featured two programs that advanced to the 2009 NCAA Super Six team final competition. The Gators finished fourth in the 2009 NCAA Super Six, just ahead of Arkansas. This competition was no different as the Gators owned an advantage of just 0.350 heading into the final event. A miss by Florida's third floor performer put the focus on the team's final three competitors and the trio - Marissa King, Maranda Smith and Ashanée Dickerson – all responded with hit routines to give UF a 196.575-195.925 win. Smith took home her first uneven bars win of the season at 9.875. Dickerson claimed another all-around title with a total of 39.475, becoming the first Gator freshman to win the first two all-around performances in her collegiate career since Corey Hartung in 2006. Dickerson also won vault (9.925) and shared the evening's floor title (9.90) with Arkansas' Jaime Pisani.

Jan. 22 @ Kentucky
(W - 196.05-195.35)

The No. 4 Gators open Southeastern Conference road action with a 196.05-195.35 win at No. 12 Kentucky. Gator gymnasts took a share of four of the evening's five event titles. Courtney Gladys shined during her vault and balance beam events with a first-place finish in each event. Teammate Nicole Ellis tied Gladys on vault, with both turning in marks of 9.875. Gladys also shared the beam win with freshman Liz Green and Kentucky's Storey Morris at 9.825. Three Gators shared the evening's uneven bars title with scores of 9.825 – Alicia Goodwin, Elizabeth Mahlich and Maranda Smith. Freshman Ashanée Dickerson picked up her third consecutive all-around title to become the first Gator to open the season with three consecutive all-around wins since former All-American Melissa Miller in 1988. Fellow freshman Marissa King was runner-up for the all-around title with a score of 39.075 for the night.

Jan. 29 LSU

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center played host to the third-largest crowd in school history as 9,198 people turned out for the Gators Link to Pink meet. The meet was the fourth annual and in addition to the competition, information to raise awareness for breast cancer was a part of the meet's program. The No. 4 Gators kept the crowd pumped throughout the evening, finishing with a then season-best total of 196.725 for the win over No. 13 LSU. Junior All-American Alicia Goodwin impressed the pink-clad crowd with a collegiate-best 9.925 to take the uneven bars title. Five Gator floor performances were then-collegiate-bests, with Maranda Smith and Ashanée Dickerson turning in marks of 9.925 to share first place. Florida freshman Liz Green shared first in the balance beam event with eventual NCAA balance beam champion Susan Jackson of LSU at 9.825.

LSU's Jackson and UF's Dickerson entered the meet ranked No. 1 and No. T4, respectively, in the national all-around rankings. Jackson took the win – her fourth consecutive – with a total of 39.525. Dickerson was second at 39.45. Eleven collegiate-best marks were set or matched by Florida gymnasts at the meet.

Feb. 5@ NC State
(W – 195.475-194.45)

Rhonda Faehn and her No. 3 Gators entered their third away meet of the season with one goal: perform aggressively. Florida opened the meet with Amanda Castillo and Marissa King tying for first on the uneven bars at 9.85. Ashanée Dickerson and Maranda Smith shared first on vault at 9.85. The Gators' lead-off performer on beam had a miss, but the remainder of the Florida lineup hit their routines. Dickerson collected her first beam title, which she shared with fellow freshman Liz Green and NC State's Jess Panza at 9.825. The beam win was the third consecutive for Green. The Gators left Raleigh with a 195.475-194.45 win over NC State.

Feb. 12 @ Alabama

No. 6 Florida's four-meet winning streak ended in Tuscaloosa against the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide, who took the 195.475-194.45 win. Alabama gymnasts claimed every event title, including a sweep of the top three uneven bars and floor positions. Gator freshman Marissa King unveiled her Tsukahara layout vault, earning a collegiate-best 9.875, but finished behind Ashanée Dickerson, Dali Lemezan and Maranda Smith who shared third with 9.90. Dickerson dazzled the Coleman Coliseum crowd with her opening floor pass, an Arabian double front, to share fourth at 9.875. Liz Green shared third on beam with UA's Morgan Dennis at 9.875.

Feb. 19 Georgia
(W – 197.25-197.15)

This night it was Florida's turn, as the Gators defeated Georgia by a tenth – 197.25-197.15 - for UF's first home dual meet win over the GymDogs since 1990. March 5 North Carolina & Ball State

(W - 197.55/UF, 194.225/UNC, 191.35/BSU)

The Gators swept the evening's event titles for the second week in a row in their tri-meet against North Carolina and Ball State. Standout freshmen Ashanée Dickerson and Marissa King tied for the all-around title with overall scores of 39.475. The win was Dickerson's sixth, making her just the third Gator in the program's 38-year history to claim six or more all-around wins as a freshman. Dickerson added her fifth wins of the season for both vault (9.95) and floor exercise (9.875). The floor competition resulted in a four-way tie between Dickerson, King and fellow freshmen Liz Green and Randy Stageberg. Amanda Castillo and Maranda Smith shared the meet's uneven bars title at 9.90. On the balance beam, senior Rebekah Zaiser posted a collegiate-best 9.95 to take her first beam win since 2008. Castillo, Courtney Gladys, Ashley Kerr, Maranda Smith and Zaiser were celebrated with a video salute to their careers in a post-meet ceremony for Senior Night.

March 27 @ SEC Championships/ Jacksonville, Fla.

(1st of 7/197.05)

Five of the nation's top 10 teams assembled in Jacksonville for the 30th edition of the Southeastern Conference Championships. The Gators drew the preferred rotation – vault, bars, beam, and floor – but looked a bit tentative on its opening event. Florida put that vault performance behind them as they posted the evening's top bars total of 49.125 on its next event. Sophomore All-American Elizabeth Mahlich led the Gators on the uneven bars as she tied for third overall when she equaled her collegiate-best mark of 9.875. There was still drama awaiting Florida on its next event, the balance beam. Senior Courtney Gladys opened the beam set with a collegiate-best mark of 9.90 and freshman Marissa King matched her top beam mark for the second consecutive week with her 9.90. But a miss by UF's fifth competitor left Ashanée Dickerson to anchor the set in front of her hometown crowd. She responded to the challenge with a mark of 9.925, which tied for second overall in the final beam standings. The Gators led all teams with its beam total of 49.40.

The final rotation had three teams in contention for the team title – the nation's top-ranked team and defending SEC-champion Alabama, defending NCAA champion Georgia and Florida. The Gators needed to average a 9.85 on floor to finish ahead of the Tide and needed to score better than Georgia, as UF led the GymDogs by only 0.05 after three events competed. Maranda Smith shared second in the floor standings at 9.90, while the other four Florida floor scorers – Dickerson, Amy Ferguson, Green, and King – all turned in marks of 9.875. Florida used the meet's top floor total of 49.40 to claim the team title with its total of 197.05. Alabama was second at 196.875 while Georgia (196.825) and LSU (195.75) rounded out the top four. The title was Florida's seventh and second since 2007.

April 10 NCAA Regional/Salt Lake City, Utah

(1st of 6/197.675)

The Gators traveled to Salt Lake City for the NCAA North Central Regional Championships with the goal to get sent back to Gainesville for the NCAA Championships. The No. 4 Gators used its season-best total of 197.675 to earn a spot at the NCAA Championships in Gainesville. It was Florida's sixth consecutive win in NCAA Regional action. No. 10 Utah took the other advancing position at 196.90, beating out Denver, Boise State, Washington and Auburn. Again, the Gators started slow on their opening event, floor, but made up for it in their last three events. Amanda Castillo, Maranda Smith and Ashanée Dickerson shared first on bars with Utah's Daria Bijak at 9.90. All five of the scores used toward Florida's school-record balance beam total of 49.575 were collegiate-bests. Those marks included Dickerson's 9.95, Liz Green's 9.925 and 9.90s from Courtney Gladys, Marissa King and Elizabeth Mahlich. Dickerson took first or second in each event to produce a collegiate-best all-around total of 39.70 –the top total ever by a Gator freshman and highest among all competitors in the nation's six regions – to claim her seventh all-around title of the season. She was announced as the NCAA Southeast Region Gymnast of the Year – a first for the Gator program – and Rhonda Faehn was named the Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

April 22-24 NCAA Championships

Florida took fifth in 2010 NCAA Super Six competition held in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. No.1-seeded UCLA won its sixth NCAA team title with a final score of 197.725. Oklahoma finished second with a 197.25 and Alabama was third at 197.225. Stanford (197.10), UF (197.00) and Utah (196.225) rounded out the field.

The Gators had breaks in every event, which kept their score from reaching a higher total. Four Gators – Amanda Castillo, Ashanée Dickerson, Alicia Goodwin and Elizabeth Mahlich – all turned in 9.85s to lead UF on the bars. Dickerson anchored UF's beam lineup with a 9.875 to lead UF on the event. She also matched her collegiate floor best of 9.95 to share the highest mark on the event in 2010 Super Six competition. Maranda Smith and Dickerson led UF on vault with identical marks of 9.90.

Four Gators competed in the individual event finals on the last day of competition in the O'Connell Center on April 24. Marissa King took fourth in the vault and fifth in the floor exercise while Dickerson finished sixth in vault and 10th in floor. UF seniors Maranda Smith and Amanda Castillo took fifth and eighth on the uneven bars, respectively. Castillo's appearance in the bar final made her the first Gator ever to appear in every individual event final over her career.

#Individual event scores determined by adding team and individual competition scores together

@ - 1993 marked the first year of a two-day format of team competition. The top six teams from the first day advance to the "Super Six" competition.
Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spots (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition earn All-America first-team honors; the next eight earn All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.
! - All-America first team
^ - All-America second team

* - denotes All-America second team

^ - IG denotes International Gymnast

Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA's two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spot (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition (results from both sessions combined) earned All-America first-team honors; the next eight earned All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

GATOR GYMNASTICS FAN SUPPORT

Florida is nationally recognized as a hotbed of collegiate gymnastics. The crowds are getting bigger each year at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, with the Gators averaging more than 5,800 fans per meet in 2010 -- the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest season average in the program's history.

Half of the program's top six crowds have come in the last three years. The 2008 regular-season dual meet featuring then No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Georgia drew a Gator gymnastics record crowd of 10,855. The 2010 Gators Link to Pink meet versus LSU drew the program's third-largest crowd of 9,198. The 2009 Gators Link to Pink meet versus Kentucky drew the program's sixth-largest crowd (8,019). Florida's strong fan base played a big role in the Gators being awarded the 2010 NCAA Gymnastics Championships. The Gators will play host to NCAA action again in 2013 when the NCAA Southeast Region Championships are held in the O'Connell Center.

The size of O'Connell Center gymnastics crowds continue to swell since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season.

"When I was growing up, I came to Gator gymnastics meets and I thought about how exciting it must be to have the crowd cheering for you. Now that I am a Gator gymnast, the experience of competing in front of the O'Connell Center crowd is far better than I ever imagined. To come out of the Gator head and be greeted by the crowd is an incredible feeling. The support the Gator fans show really helps us perform. Thank you Gator fans!"

-Ashanée Dickerson

The Gators drew a program-record 10,855 fans for the 2008 dual meet featuring then-No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Georgia.

The Rumblin' Tumblin' Reptiles is the Gator gymnastics team's student-booster group.

Fan interest has been growing for Gator gymnastics since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season, with the team's average attendance growing tremendously during her tenure. Florida averaged more than 5,800 per meet in 2010, the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest average in the program's 38-year history.
